

RECRUITING AND SELECTING HIGH QUALITY TALENT: PRACTICES TO ENSURE BEST FIT

Mutual selection of key staff is paramount to success of implementation efforts. An effective recruitment and selection process can help ensure you find and hire individuals with the skills needed to be successful and inform the onboarding process. In this webinar, participants will deepen their knowledge of best practices in selection of key staff, see examples of interview protocols and performance assessments, and have an opportunity to examine their current use of best practices in their selection processes.

By the end of the session, participants will have/be able to:

- Deeper knowledge of best practices in recruiting and selecting high quality talent
- Assess their current selection process to identify strengths and areas for improvement
- Knowledge of strategies and tools to support building or refinement of an effective selection process

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7TH

12:00 PM - 1:30 PM

HTTP://BIT.LY/PRACTICESTOENSUREBESTFIT

Tanya Ihlo, PhD

Advanced Implementation Specialist with the National Implementation Research Network (NIRN) and State Implementation and Scaling-up of Evidence-based Practices Center (SISEP) at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Caryn Ward, PhD

Director, State Implementation & Scaling Up Center of Evidence Based Practices (SISEP); Associate Director, Education & Measurement National Implementation Research Network at UNC Chapel Hill